Volunteer Options for Ambassadors (volunteers staying up to 10 days)

Volunteer options at Peace House Academy vary throughout the year, depending on what is happening in the construction process, and where, in the school-year calendar, the students are. Please select as many of the following options as would be of interest to you. Final decisions about what actual volunteer work will be done are made by PHA staff. Every effort will be made to assign you to one of the options you have selected here.

- Construction – heavy work (such as moving concrete blocks, digging, etc)
- Construction – light work (such as painting, small furniture building, etc)
- Gardening work (may include tree planting, watering, etc)
- Informal English tutoring, one-on-one or small groups
- Visiting or playing games with students, or teaching a skill, sport, craft, etc (provide details below)
- Clerical work (assisting director or other staff, organizing school library, etc)
- Observation (for very brief visitors or those who are unable to work)
- Other- please explain in detail in essay portion of application

Volunteer Options for Friends (10-90 days) and Partners (over 90 days)

Interested in exploring the option of staying in Tanzania for a longer amount of time? A longer-term volunteer position allows for a more formal role within the school community, and provides time for relationships to develop with PHA students and staff.

Long-term volunteering requires a detailed plan of the work which will be done. Please indicate your general area of interest, and provide as much detail as possible about what you would like to accomplish while at PHA in the essay section of this application. You will be contacted to discuss your proposal and to work out necessary details. Partners require a different sort of visa; please refer to the Volunteering Guidelines for more information. Due to visa requirements, applications for a Partner position must be submitted 9 months in advance.

- Working with students (tutoring, informal teaching, coaching, extra-curricular activities, etc)
- Staff development (mentoring teachers, developing curriculum, etc)
- Administrative work (clerical support, computer services, etc)
- Development support (photography, writing, etc)
- Professional services (dental, medical, nursing, teaching, social work, etc. Licensure required)
- Property development and maintenance (landscaping, agriculture, construction, etc)
- Other- please explain in detail in essay portion of application

Application Essay

On separate paper, please tell us more about yourself and your plans for volunteering. Include:

- International travel experience
- Experience working with children and/or youth
- Volunteer experience (what you have enjoyed, what you have not enjoyed, and why)
- Friends and Partners only: Include a project proposal giving a detailed description of what you would like to do at PHA, including an explanation of the skills and talents which you believe will make you successful. Long-term volunteer positions at PHA are subject to approval based on need for services offered and space for volunteers at any given time.

Basic Health Information

Note: Trips prepared by PHF will require that all participants be physically and emotionally able to endure potentially difficult, strenuous, and demanding conditions (including working at high altitudes). Volunteers often walk long distances over rough terrain and labor under the hot Tanzanian sun. Understanding this, do you feel that you are healthy enough to travel with us? If yes, please initial here: _____

Do you have any dietary restrictions and/or allergies? If yes, please explain

What is your blood type?

Indicate medications you are currently taking (including over-the-counter drugs)

Please list any medical conditions that will be important to know in case of emergency (such as heart disease, emphysema, diabetes, seizures, depression, injuries, recent surgery, etc)

If the medical conditions listed require special arrangements, equipment, or assistance for you to participate in an active schedule, please indicate what those may be
